Mole and His Friends

He's here again! Smart little, busy little Mole from flower land will no doubt make himself a whole lot of new friends. Nimble Hare is back too, and prickly Hedgehog, sharp little Mouse and clever old Owl. The animals stick together. What else would you expect? That Mole should end up being feted as a famous film star is only right and proper and richly deserved, and all his friends enjoy the razzmatazz. But they've soon had enough of all the commotion and are only too glad to get back to their quiet and peaceful flower land.
