Gallery of the Masters

Gallery of the Masters looks at the great names of art history, using the narrative tools of television to bring their stories to life. It particularly sets out to show what made the great masters and their works special in the context of the art around them.

What set a Botticelli, a Rembrandt, a Bruegel apart? What put them in a class of their own? Looking through the eyes of these artists at the world, art and attitudes of their times, we delve into the minds of the masters and examine the roots of their artistic achievement.
