Europe 28

The European Union has 28 member nations, with 28 capitals that are defined by very different histories and cultures. In each and every one of these cities, we visit people who take us to places you won't find in any guidebook and who tell us more about life in their city than you will ever read in the travel pages of the Sunday newspaper. They lead us to romantic locations, show us their favorite bar or restaurant and provide a very personal insight into the EU's capital cities from Amsterdam to Zagreb. Euromaxx met most of the protagonists years ago: We take a look at what has changed since, and what is just as beautiful as it ever was.
