Please note:

The applicant's personal details given above are stored for internal purposes and only in connection with this project.

Employees of Deutsche Welle as well as their relatives are excluded from participation in the competition.

In case of discord the English application text is the binding version.

If a contestant's final media product meets Deutsche Welle's (DW) journalistic standards, DW may disseminate it through its broadcasting channels. In such case, DW will conclude a separate license agreement with the participant.

The environmental journalism conference and the advanced-level training will only take place in Jakarta, Indonesia if the Covid-19 pandemic allows. If an on-site conference is possible, DW Akademie will cover the participant's costs for travel, accommodation, catering and their visa expenses. If the pandemic or other adverse conditions make an on-site conference impossible, the event will take place online. In this case, no payments will be made for travel, accommodation, catering or visa expenses.

Please submit the following documents:

- The application form in Hindi or English (completed, signed and scanned as .pdf file). If you apply as a team, every team member needs to fill out their own application form.
- A story proposal for your mobile report in Hindi or English (completed and scanned as .pdf file). If you apply as a team, please fill out one story proposal form together.
- A copy of your passport (picture page as .pdf file) or identification card.
- Link with access to video you have produced (in Hindi or English) uploaded to your Dropbox or Google Drive folder. The video should illustrate basic video reporting skills. If you apply as a team, every team member needs to upload their own video.

If invited to participate in the project, I agree to:

- Participate in both online trainings, Mobile Journalism (8 -9 June and 14-15 June 2021) and Environmental Journalism (28-29 June and 8 9 July 2021),
- Work on one journalistic mobile report in cooperation with the DW mentors and submit a final version by 31 August 2021,
- If selected as a winner/winning team, to take part in the Environmental Journalism Conference in Jakarta, Indonesia, in November 2021.
